MAYOR GOODMAN declared the Public Hearing open.

DEVIN SMITH, Manager of Neighborhood Response, explained that the property was a public hazard and an attractive nuisance. Neighborhood Services declared this property in violation and started legal notification. When no corrective action was taken nor an appeal filed, the Department of Neighborhood Services hired C.H. Construction to remove trash, debris, including furniture, wood and metal cans, bottles and engine parts and vegetation, drain excess water from pool and post No Vehicles, No Trespassing and No Dumping signs on site. To date, there have been seven inspections conducted at this location. The value of the property based on the sale date of February 1995 was $86,933. He recommended approval of the report of expenses in the amount of $2,149 for work completed by C.H. Construction, plus a 15 percent administrative fee of $322.35, reinspection fees, including late fees of $330, civil penalties in the amount of $150, for a total of $2,951.35, and that the above charges be filed and recorded against the property constituting a special assessment and lien and authorize that the Notice and Lien of Assessment be duly recorded with the County Treasurer.

The property owner was not present.

MAYOR GOODMAN declared the Public Hearing closed.
